Immigration laws are changing and so, we change and comply.
All your questions will be answered!

With more than eleven years of combined legal experience across the United States and East Africa, Jephnei leads The Law Office of Jephnei Orina, where he represents clients in family-based and humanitarian immigration matters before USCIS, EOIR, and U.S. consular posts. He previously practiced with Gatama & Associates Advocates in Nairobi, handling civil, commercial, and employment litigation, and served as a Legal Officer with GIZAA Power Solutions supporting multi-country energy projects across East Africa. Jephnei's academic and professional work reflects his commitment to service, immigrant advocacy, and community empowerment. His ongoing mission is to expand access to justice for vulnerable populations while advancing research and policy that protect the rights of children and marginalized communities.
